

story of my life! I don't see Phyllis (Gale) very often, but keep in touch. They were utterly devastated by the death of their youngest daughter Julie last year but the other two are a great support.

Now Joan Fawcett is staying with Phyllis, so I hope to see her sometime while she is here. In fact,

Phyllis sent me the correspondence from you - - -

Your 2-day Programme sounds good - plenty of time for informal chat, which is so essential. I will think of you all. It is sad to see that 4 class-mates have died, but I suppose we are all of the age when that is not unexpected. Miss Somers would say to us "keep going, girls, but never stand when you can sit, so don't overdo it."

Good luck to you all, & enjoy the reunion.

All good wishes,

Joyce (O'Neill) Tate.

Pauline dear - I think it is wonderful that you have done so much to get a group together for a 50th. I did get - your pink note & pink form, and apologize for not answering - always at the back of my mind was the hope that I might be able to get down, but we were going thro' a bad time with health - Alan was fighting off a complete breakdown due to having had 6 stressful years organizing & coordinating a body, seniors Cultural Activities Home, just at the back of us around the corner, 7 acres & a dilapidated home (you should see it now) - no one (but I) could see what the 25 holidays & constant phone calls & worries were ^{doing} (I loved him) ~~being~~ to him because he was always so kind, helpful & approachable & mind went up overtime - so I was the one to be his suffer!
I had Joan - my sister from Niagara with us for 10 days - she didn't know things were bad or she wouldn't have come - & it's 15 yrs. since we've seen each other - she was shocked when she saw Alan; he couldn't even drive his car - whole body shook & "jelly". Sorry I have no news on Jill - or Shirton - I had her last 2 Xmas cards of mine to her, returned. I knew Drummond, Esterer, Secombe & Thompson had died - I'd kept in "Xmas" touch with them (except Lil S.) two of who had been my roommates & Siroka a dear friend.

Pauline m'dear - I just can't see my way to get down & I feel so sad & frustrated because what we both need is to get away - Alan's Dr. told him to leave everything or he'd put him into hospital where he could do nothing but rest, & no phone! When your gal B. Warner came to the door, I had a house full of family & guests & I'm afraid I was very confused, myself - I do appreciate her having made the effort on all our behalf - you are here - phone # not listed - a long story but it is (604) 477-0981.
I will think of you all on May 19 & 20 - & love to you all.
I'm O.K. though 3" shorter, Rheumatoid Arthritis & Osteoporosis & Fibrositis - the old innards are good I think - just the skeleton & 24 hr pain - but I do manage.
$55.00 enclosed with my love - God bless, Anne (Tommy) x x

Dear Pauline —

What a surprise to hear from you — and what a good idea! Your letter was here when David and I returned from our annual visit to Barbados on 18th March. But Pauline — May is just too soon for me to include it in this year's plans — but you never know about Joan Evans & Joyce Tate! I have just written Joyce (godmother to one of our daughters) because she hopes to see Joan between April & end of June.
Joan arrives here on April 6th. to stay with us — (Joan Pawcett & Joyce O'Neill) — Joan leaves on June 30th — & has a trip to Rome in May — & to Paris as well.

We are away in May from 13-20-& on a cruise (Black Sea!) 17th June to 30th. Weekend of 9th - 10th May is free — I think you should all come over here! At least we 3 can meet — but if a lot of you do get together — we shall be thinking of you. In the meantime I'll show your letter to Joan when she arrives — and then send it on to Joyce — if she hasn't it — one — all the best,

Phyll Gale Morgan
